Ashmore & Nimmons are paying 22¢ for eggs, 15¢ for butter, and the best price for chickens. It will pay you to sell to them at these prices.

It will pay you to see Ashmore & Nimmons before you buy your winter shoes. They have some good bargains to offer.

For Sale—17 acres, original forest, 11 miles north of Pickens, $30 an acre; 75 acres west of Woodall Mountain, 10 acres branch bottom, balance in timber, price $10 acre, cash deal. E. F. KERR, R. F. D., No. 4, Pickens, S. C.

You have not heard nothing from Old Moore in a long time. I am in Earle's old drug store on the corner. I am just battle-whanging along selling beef and one thing and another. But now we come to facts: I want to buy your dry hides, green hides, raw hides and all other kinds of hides, also your seed cotton and cotton seeds. I want some sheep, I want some pork; I can't tell hardly what I do want. The old market.

J. D. Moore.

When in Easley put up your stock at B. P. Martin's feed and livery stable. He also handles all kinds of feedstuff. 38-1f

A few first class sewing machines, slightly used to be sold at greatly reduced prices. Also sewing machines repaired. Call at Gwig Bros.

O. P. Knight.

For Sale—One tract of land 3 1/2 miles from Pickens, 140 acres, one 8-room dwelling one barn and stables, one set of house, 200 young fruit trees, 45 acres in cultivation, 40 in pine timber, fine pasture, 25 acres in woodland, most of it 1st class well. $35 per acre. Apply to P. O. Anthony, Greenville, S. C. R. F. D. 2.

THE MAGIC NO. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Harris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man to-day. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by Pickens, Drug Co., druggist, 50c.

Speaking French.

Want to speak French fluently? Get a clothespin and pinch up your nose. Then start in, and in a week you will have the correct accent of the boulevards. To speak good French you must pretend to have a bad cold. Nothing is so hard as the good language as this. You have not to be afraid of the clothespin. Just pinch it up and it closes the nose. The nose is the key and the key is the key. I have a few dishes from the menu of a New York American hotel—always in the cheapest possible language—the language de cuisine, or kitchen French. And in a discussion never forget to add to every assertion or interrogation "nez par!" In pure French this is spelled "nez-pas." In American it means, according to Dr. Amos Jeffreys of Virginia "Ain't dat so?"—New York Press.

A Woman's Health

Is a heritage too sacred to be experimented with. For her peculiar and delicate ailments only medicines of known composition and which contain no alcohol, narcotics, or other harmful or habit-forming drugs should be employed. Such a medicine is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy with a record of over forty years of cures to recommend it; a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements. It is not given away in the form of "trial bottles" to be experimented with, but is sold at a fair price by all dealers in medicines.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headaches, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in stomach, sees imaginary floating specks, or spots before her eyes, has melancholia, or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept any secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is of known composition and has a record of over forty years and sells more largely to-day than ever before. Its makers make no secrets from their patients, and are open publicly to be tested by the body of merit.

To a woman suffering from any of the above symptoms, a letter free of charge. All letters of this nature are held as confidential, and an answer is returned in a sealed envelope. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Association.

Chartered Under the Laws of South Carolina.

G. N. C. Boleman, President; J. J. McSwain, Vice-President; H. J. Southern, Gen. Treasurer, W. P. Hicks, Gen. Secretary.

The Carolina Mutual is a Home Institution and all the details of its management have been arranged with special reference to the convenience and protection of its policy holders.

Chapters have been organized in Greenville, Anderson, Greenwood, Spartanburg and Cherokee counties. The Anderson Chapter is nearly full, and the other Chapters are growing very fast. One thousand members constitute a Chapter. All healthy white people from 15 to 60 years of age are eligible to membership.

Entrance fee: 15 to 30 years of age $4, 30 to 40 $5, 40 to 50 $6, 50 to 60 $7. Assessment at death $1.15. Any applicant for membership can designate which Chapter he or she desires to be placed in.

W. P. Hicks, Secretary Greenville Chapter; J. C. Payne, Secretary Spartanburg Chapter; R. J. Gant, Secretary Spartanburg Chapter; W. M. Austell, Secretary Cherokee Chapter.

This is absolutely a Home Institution. Why insure in other states when you have a better and cheaper institution at your own door?

The money to pay each death claim is always on hand and deposited in a bank in the county where the Chapter is located. Could any place be safer?
